

Social Events & Activities

Committee Highlight

The Pheasant Run Social Committee, formed in 2023, has brought neighbors together through both small group and community wide events. The team explores new ideas, coordinates social activities and communications, and keeps the Board updated.

Committee members Anne Astley, Kathleen Spyhalski, Pamm Steffen, and Sharon Krukar meet monthly to build a connected neighborhood. Each year, our list of activities grows, including multiple book clubs and lunch groups, sheepshead, an Advent devotional group, holiday food drive, cookie exchanges, and three annual outdoor gatherings. Last year, we added a very successful community wide holiday lunch.

Looking ahead, we're hoping to partner with the Landscape Committee to create a neighborhood beautification and gardening group to help residents with planting annuals and caring for flower beds to keep Pheasant Run vibrant and welcoming for all.

If you are interested in participating in an activity or would like to assist with certain tasks for event planning, reach out to us at social@pheasant-run.com.

Looking Ahead:

- Thursday, April 9: Ladies' Lunch (contact Anne for available seating)
- Tuesday, June 16: Meet and Greet
- Wednesday, July 15: America's 250th
- Tuesday, August 18: Last Call
- Saturday, December 5: Holiday Lunch

Little Free Library

Our Little Free Library is a special part of Pheasant Run from homeowner Bruce Stenz in memory of his late wife, Cindy, an avid reader. Bruce and his family gifted the library to our community in 2020, and with support from the Board, Hunt Management, and several generous neighbors, it was installed and beautifully landscaped over the following two years.

or pass it along -and feel free to leave a book to share with others. There's even a guest book for notes, recommendations, and messages to neighbors.

Bruce continues to serve as the library's custodian. If you ever notice anything that needs attention, you can reach him at bcstenz1@gmail.com.

Communications

Welcome to the newest members of our community:

George & Karen Papachristou

David & Julie Koberstein

We are sad to learn that resident Fleurette Mascarenhas passed away in February. Pheasant Run extends its sympathy to her family.
